35.7± Acres in Pike County, MO – Offered in Three Tracts

Located just minutes from Bowling Green and under an hour north of Chesterfield Valley, this 35.7± acre offering in Pike County, Missouri, provides a solid mix of open ground, timber, and improvements. With frontage on Hwy F and county water and electric available, these tracts are well suited for building, recreation, or a rural getaway.

Tract 1: 19± Acres:

This rolling tract includes 8+ acres of hay ground with Winfield silt loam soils (9–14% slope). The balance is woods and grass, offering good hunting and habitat for wildlife. A small pond and wet-weather creek provide natural water sources. Several potential building sites offer views of the surrounding countryside.

Tract 2: 13± Acres:

A 56x40 barndominium sits back from the road, offering a great view over pasture and creek bottom. The Barndo is ready to be finished out and could serve as a full-time residence or weekend place. County water and electric are already on site. Woods, grass, and a wet-weather creek make this a versatile recreational tract.

Tract 3: 3.7± Acres:

A smaller tract with a great build site and approx. 48x16 outbuilding in place. County water and electric are at the road. The property has a good mix of grass and woods and could serve well as a home site, cabin setup, or additional acreage to pair with one of the larger tracts.
