PROPERTY DESCRIPTION:

Exciting new construction investment in historic Hermann! Cycle Inn, already a favorite stop for Katy Trail cyclists, features seven stylish short-term rental units with a rustic design, tin exteriors, and repurposed details. A restaurant and retail space are currently under construction, providing plenty of time to customize it to your vision. Additionally, the foundation has been poured for two more tiny house rentals, allowing for future expansion. Built efficiently and designed for guest appeal, the property includes a welcoming firepit gathering area. Located in the commercial zone and just steps from shops, restaurants, and wineries, this property offers prime visibility and convenience. The sale includes furnishings and future bookings, making this a turn-key opportunity to grow a thriving hospitality business in one of Missouri's most popular destinations.
