Note: If Seller knows or suspects some condition which might lower the value of the property being sold or adversely affect Buyer's decision to buy the property, then Seller needs to disclose it. This statement will assist Buyer in evaluating the property being considered. Real estate brokers and agents involved in the sale do not inspect the property for defects, and they cannot guarantee the accuracy of the information in this form.
TO SELLER: Your truthful disclosure of the condition of your property gives you the best protection against future charges that you violated your legal obligation to Buyer by concealing a material defect(s), lead-based paint, use as a site for methamphetamine production or storage and/or any other disclosure required by law. Your knowledge of the property prior to your ownership may be relevant. In the case of a material defect, for example, if information that you possess indicates some persistent pattern of a problem not completely remedied, such information should be included in this disclosure in order to achieve full and honest disclosure. Your answers or the answers you fail to provide, either way, may have legal consequences, even after the closing of the sale. This questionnaire should help you meet your disclosure obligation, but it may not cover all aspects of your property. If you know of or suspect some condition which would substantially lower the value of the property, impair the health or safety of future occupants, or otherwise affect Buyer's decision to buy your property, then use the space at the end of this form to describe that condition.
