PROPERTY DESCRIPTION:

Nestled in the heart of Pulaski County, this 19± acre recreational gem offers a potential build site atop a gently sloped hill with beautiful views. There is electric access, which makes it the perfect location for a secluded home or cabin retreat. The property features a ready-to-go food plot area in a power line cut, with good soils and an abundance of deer and turkey sign already. Beautiful timber litters the land. Much of the timber is oak, providing a mass crop of acorns for the wildlife during the fall and winter. There is an old creek bed on a portion of the property, Giving another area for even more recreation, hunting, and even more mushroom hunting in the spring. This unique property has a lot to offer.

You'll have easy access to some of Missouri's finest fishing just minutes from multiple access points to the Gasconade River. Whether you're looking for a quiet recreational getaway or a future home site, this property provides incredible value in a compact package.
